1. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

1.1. The Indemnified Parties acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) the Seller Warranties and Company Warranties are the only warranties or other assurances of any kind given by or on behalf of the Seller and the Company respectively and on which the Indemnified Parties may rely in entering into this Agreement; any other representations or warranties or other assurances which may be applicable under Law are hereby excluded, to the extent permitted by the applicable Law and without prejudice to the Seller Warranties and Company Warranties;
- (b) except as specifically stated herein, no representation or warranty of any kind or nature whatsoever, either express or implied is being made by the Seller or the Company, or any of their respective shareholders, directors, officers, employees, agents or representatives with respect to the adequacy of any information provided to the Indemnified Parties or its representatives, the nature, condition or value of the business of the Company. No Person other than the Seller or the Company has been authorized by the Seller or the Company to make any representation or warranty relating to the Seller or the Company or otherwise in connection with the transactions contemplated herein and, if made, such representation or warranty must not be relied upon as having been authorized by the Seller or the Company;

- (e) no other statement, promise or forecast made by or on behalf of the Seller or the Company may form the basis of, or be pleaded in connection with, any claim by the Indemnified Parties under or in connection with this Agreement.

2. NOTICE AND PROCEDURE

2.1. Indemnification Notice:

At any time after any Indemnified Party becomes aware of any actual or potential Loss being incurred or suffered by such Indemnified Party as a result of the occurrence of an event which is the subject of indemnification by the Indemnifying Party in its favour under this Agreement (including if such event involves a Third Party Claim (defined below)) (an “Indemnity Claim”), the Indemnified Party must give a notice in writing to the Indemnifying Party (“Indemnification Notice”). An Indemnification Notice must describe the event giving rise to the proposed claim and the proposed claim in reasonably sufficient detail to put the Indemnifying Party fairly on notice of the matter in question and the likely monetary quantum of the Loss (to the extent the Indemnified Party can reasonably determine that amount at the relevant time the Indemnification Notice is given).

2.2. Objection Notice:

The Indemnifying Party may, within 30 (thirty) Business Days after receipt of an Indemnification Notice (“Objection Period”), object to the subject matter and/or the amount of the Loss set forth in the Indemnification Notice by notifying the Indemnified Party in writing (“Objection Notice”). An Objection Notice must contain reasonably sufficient detail so as to put the Indemnified Party fairly on notice of the matters to which the Indemnifying Party objects in question and the likely monetary quantum of any Loss not agreed by the Indemnifying Party. It is clarified that the Purchaser may issue one or more notices required under this Agreement on behalf of itself and other Indemnified Parties.

2.3. Where no Objection Notice

If the Indemnifying Party does not serve an Objection Notice within the Objection Period, the Indemnifying Party shall be conclusively deemed to have agreed to the matters set forth in the Indemnification Notice issued by an Indemnified Party and must perform all the necessary actions (including the payment of money to the Indemnified Party) so as to make full indemnification of the Loss stated in the Indemnification Notice to the Indemnified Party:

- (a) within a further 10 (ten) Business Days from expiry of the Objection Period; or
- (b) if the Loss described in the Indemnification Notice has not or will not actually be incurred or crystallise before that time, on no less than 10 (ten) Business Days’ notice from the Indemnified Party, provided always that such date for payment may not be earlier than the date on which such Loss is actually incurred or otherwise crystallises.

2.4. Where Dispute arises

- (a) If the Indemnifying Party serves an Objection Notice, then a Dispute will be deemed to have arisen between the Indemnifying Party and an Indemnified Party, to which the provisions of Clause 9 of the Agreement will apply.
- (b) In the event that, as a result of the procedures set out in Clause 9 of the Agreement (which must have regard to the limitations in this Schedule), an arbitral award or determination requires the Indemnifying Party to pay any amount to an Indemnified Party on account of an Indemnity Claim, the Indemnifying Party must pay or procure payment of such amount to the Indemnified Party within 10 (ten) Business Days’ of the arbitral award or determination being made, or such other date as specified in the arbitral award or determination or as may otherwise be agreed by the parties to the Dispute.

2.5. Delays:

Any delay in any Indemnification Notice or Third Party Claim Notice given by an Indemnified Party does not relieve the Indemnifying Party of or alter its obligations in relation to any Indemnity Claim, except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is materially prejudiced by such delay.

3. THIRD PARTY CLAIMS

- 3.1. In the event that any Indemnified Party receives notice of any Claim arising out of any matter indemnified under this Agreement (a “Third Party Claim”) by any Person (“Third Party”) which the Indemnified Party reasonably believes may give rise to an Indemnity Claim against the Indemnifying Party, the Indemnified Party must (without limitation to any other provisions of this Schedule):
- (a) give notice in writing of the Third Party Claim to the Indemnifying Party within 10 (ten) Business Days of so becoming aware of the Third Party Claim (“Third Party Claim Notice”);
  - (b) consult with the Indemnifying Party with respect to the Third Party Claim;
  - (c) if requested to do so by the Indemnifying Party provide and use all reasonable endeavours to provide to the Indemnifying Party and its legal advisers reasonable access to information, documents and records within the power or control of the Indemnified Party for the purposes of investigating the Third Party Claim and enabling the Indemnifying Party to take any action referred to in this paragraph;
  - (d) take action and institute proceedings as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably request or require in writing to:
    - (i) avoid, dispute, resist, appeal, compromise, defend, remedy or mitigate the Third Party Claim or enforce against the Third Party (other than the Indemnifying Party) the rights of the Indemnified Party in relation to the Third Party Claim; and
    - (ii) use legal advisers nominated by the Indemnifying Party in connection with any proceedings related to the Third Party Claim (other than against the Indemnifying Party).
- 3.2. The Party who assumes defence of Third Party Claim shall not admit liability in respect of, or compromise or settle, the matter without the prior written consent of the Indemnifying Party or an Indemnified Party, as the case may be (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld).
- 3.3. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 3.1 and 3.2 of this Schedule 5, if an Indemnified Party is required to deposit any sums of money or pay any other costs or fees in relation to any Third Party Claim (“Indemnity Costs”), then the Indemnity Costs will be paid by the relevant Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party shall not be required to go out-of-pocket at any time. Notwithstanding anything contained herein and irrespective of who assumes defence of a Third Party Claim, in no event shall any Indemnified Party be required to incur any Indemnity Costs. In the event any Indemnity Costs are refunded to the Indemnified Party, then the Indemnified Party shall without dispute forthwith but in no event later than 10 (ten) Business Days of receipt of such Indemnity Costs, refund the Indemnity Costs (along with interest, if any, received by the Indemnified Party on the Indemnity Costs) to the relevant Indemnifying Party.

4. INDEMNITY PAYMENTS

- 4.1. Any indemnity payments pursuant to this Agreement shall be made by the Indemnifying Parties to an Indemnified Party in full, without any set off, counterclaim, restriction or condition and without any deduction or withholding (save as may be required by law or as otherwise agreed in this Agreement or in writing between the Parties). If Tax must be deducted, or any other deductions must be made from any indemnity payments, such additional amounts must be paid by the Indemnifying Party as may be necessary to ensure that the Indemnified Party receives a net amount equal to the full amount which it would have received had payment not been made subject to such Tax or deductions.

- 4.2. Any indemnity payments made by the Indemnifying Parties pursuant to this Agreement shall be effected by crediting for same day value the account specified by an Indemnified Party on behalf of the party entitled to the payment (reasonably in advance and in sufficient detail to enable payment by electronic transfer to be effected) on or before the due date for payment.
- 4.3. To the extent the payment by the Indemnifying Party of any indemnification payment pursuant to the provisions of Clause 6 (Indemnification) shall be subject to receipt of approvals from any Governmental Authority (if required), the Indemnifying Party and the relevant Indemnified Party shall be responsible for obtaining all such approvals from any Governmental Authority and shall make all applications and take all steps required to obtain the same. Alternatively, if mutually agreed between the Parties, with both Parties acting reasonably, the claim amount (that is, the Loss) shall be paid to any Affiliate of the Indemnified Party.

5. LIMITATIONS

- 5.1 An Indemnifying Party shall not be liable in respect of an Indemnity Claim if and to the extent the relevant Loss would not have arisen but for:
  - (a) a change in applicable Law or any amendment to or the withdrawal of any practice previously published by a Governmental Authority, in either case occurring after the Agreement Date, whether or not that change, amendment or withdrawal purports to be effective retrospectively in whole or in part; or
  - (b) any act or omission of the Indemnifying Party on or before the Agreement Date carried out at the written request of any Indemnified Party, or any act or omission of any Indemnified Party after the Agreement Date, except to the extent such act or omission is necessary to comply with applicable Law.
- 5.2 The Indemnifying Parties shall not be liable for any indirect, remote, consequential, exemplary or punitive damages, including lost profits, loss of business or goodwill.
- 5.3 The Indemnified Parties shall take all reasonable steps and provide all reasonable assistance to avoid or mitigate any Losses which are subject matter of an Indemnity Claim.
- 5.4 The Seller shall not be liable to any Indemnified Party for any claims arising out of a breach of any of the Company Warranties and/or any obligations of the Company under this Agreement. The Company shall not be liable to any Indemnified Party for any claims arising out of a breach of any of the Seller Warranties and/or any obligations of the Seller under this Agreement.
- 5.5 Notwithstanding anything contained in the Agreement to the contrary:
  - (a) the aggregate maximum liability of the Seller for all Tax Claims shall not exceed the INR amount equivalent to 3 (three) times the amount of capital gains Tax arising out of the sale of the Purchase Shares by the Seller to the Indemnified Parties; and

- (b) the Seller shall be liable to indemnify the Indemnified Parties in relation to any Tax Claim only before March 31, 2027; provided that if a notice which gives rise to a Tax Claim is received by any Indemnified Party from any Governmental Authority under the IT Act or dated on or before March 31, 2027 (even if it is received after such date) and an Indemnity Claim basis such notice from the Governmental Authority is made by the Indemnified Parties by issuing an Indemnification Notice, then the obligation of the Seller to indemnify the Indemnified Parties for the relevant Tax Claim shall terminate in respect of such proceedings only upon full and final termination of all proceedings in this regard.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby clarified that none of the limitations set out in this Clause 5.5, shall apply to a claim for indemnity under this Agreement other than a Tax Claim.

- 5.6 The Indemnified Parties shall not be entitled to make any Indemnity Claim to the extent that the claim would allow any Indemnified Party to claim an amount more than once in respect of the same subject matter (a “Double Claim”). If the Indemnified Party does recover an amount from an Indemnifying Party which is pursuant to a Double Claim, the Indemnified Parties shall return an amount equal to the excess to such Indemnifying Party.
- 5.7 To the extent that an Indemnity Claim is for Loss which is based upon a contingent liability, the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to make a payment to the Indemnified Parties in respect of such Loss unless and until such time as the contingent liability becomes actual Loss.
- 5.8 Where the Indemnifying Party has made a payment to any Indemnified Party in relation to any Indemnity Claim and any Indemnified Party recovers (whether by insurance, payment, discount, credit relief or otherwise) from a third party a sum which indemnifies or compensates any Indemnified Party (in whole or in part) in respect of the Loss which is the subject of such Indemnity Claim, the Indemnified Parties shall pay to such Indemnifying Party as soon as practicable after receipt of such an amount, the amount recovered from the third party, less (i) in the event of a partial discharge, any outstanding indemnity amount due and payable but not received from the Indemnifying Party; and (ii) any Taxes and costs of such recovery from a third party subject to the Indemnified Parties providing the Indemnifying Party supporting documents with respect to such Taxes and costs, if available or in the absence of such documents, providing an undertaking that it has disclosed true and complete information regarding the amount recovered from the third party and Taxes and costs of recovery from a third party.
- 5.9 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated in this Agreement, the limitations set forth in paragraph 5 of this Schedule 5 shall not apply for a Loss attributable to any fraud with respect to any Company Warranty or Seller Warranty.
